

Vancouver

FAYE BROWNLIE

Faye Brownlie is one of B.C.'s most sought-after local literacy experts. She works in staff development provincially, nationally and internationally, and has long been an advocate of improved literacy for all students, especially in inclusive classroom settings.

Faye has co-authored many teacher resources, including Visual and Verbal Thinking with Kit Grauer, Assessment and Instruction of ESL Learners with Catherine Feniak and Vicki McCarthy, and the District Assessment of Reading Team (DART) with a consortium of B.C. districts. She was also a member of B.C.'s Student Achievement Task Force.

One of Faye's most rewarding experiences was her recent visit to Latvia, as a member of the Reading and Writing for Critical Thinking Project.

She clearly has a strong research base, but also has wonderful teacher intuition, and her lessons show artful mediation between students and the material to be learned. She continues to teach one day a week, currently in the Richmond School District.

